THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading

Revelation 21:1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

Reader: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24:1-6

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world and all who dwell therein.

For it is he who founded it upon the seas and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

"Who can ascend the hill of the Lord and who can stand in his holy place?"

"Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, who have not pledged themselves to falsehood, nor sworn by what is a fraud.

They shall receive a blessing from the Lord and a just reward from the God of their salvation."

Such is the generation of those who seek him, of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

Second Reading

Colossians 1:9-14

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Reader: The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

John 11:32-44

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Gospeller: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Commemoration of All Souls: Today at 4pm

A service to remember loved ones who have died during the past year, and those we “love but see no longer.” All are welcome.

Sun Nov 11 Service time 9:30am

Our service time on Remembrance day will start 30 minutes early to allow people to attend the cenotaph at 11am.

Save the Date: Sat Nov 17 Parish Conversation and Visioning

This will be day of discerning our baptismal vocation and ministry here at St. John’s in order to map out our mission going forward. All members of the congregation are encouraged to attend. The day will run from 9am-3pm. Lunch and breaks will be provided. Please RSVP with Louise Sherry in the parish office so we know numbers for catering. Our facilitator that day is the Rev’d Dr. Jay Koyle, Congregational Development Officer for the Diocese of Algoma.

In preparation for this day, please consider reading through the Gospel of John, noting any phrases, images or words that speak to you and forwarding them to Canon Catherine. This exercise isn’t mandatory for participation in the conversation and all members of the congregation are encouraged to join in the day.

Community Dinner: Sun Nov 18 4pm

If you are able to help out at the Community Dinner, please get in touch with Virginia Willis at vawillis723@yahoo.com or (613) 797-8248.

Sounds of Christmas: Sun Nov 18 6:30pm

This annual concert in support of the Salvation Army’s Christmas Hamper project will be held at Bethel Pentecostal Church and will feature music from local parishes and readings from Charles’ Dickens’ A Christmas Carol. Come out and enjoy this family friendly event.
