Prelude

Hymn 231

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Presider: Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Presider: May his grace and peace be with you.

People: May he fill our hearts with joy.

Collect for Purity

p.185

Gloria

Glory to God on high, and peace to all on earth.

We worship you, we give you thanks, our heavenly King.

We give you praise, almighty God and Father blessed in glory bright.

Our Saviour, Jesus Christ, the Father's only Son,
the sacrificial Lamb, who saves the world from sin,
have mercy Lord. Beside the Father's hand enthroned, now hear our prayer.

You only are the Lord. You only are most high.

You only are the holy one, Lord Jesus Christ.

And now you reign with Father and with Spirit one in glorious light.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and eternal God, the strength of those who believe and the hope of those who doubt, may we, who have not seen, have faith and receive the fullness of Christ's blessing, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading

Acts 5:27-32

When they had brought them, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, 'We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us.' But Peter and the apostles answered, 'We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Saviour, so that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.'

Reader: The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 150 (please remain seated)

Tune: Azmon

Within his temple, give God praise;
in heaven above give praise;
for all his greatness, give God praise;
for mighty acts, give praise.

Upon the ram's horn, give God praise;
with lyre and harp give praise;
with dance and timbrel, give God praise;
with strings and pipe, give praise.

With clashing cymbals, give God praise;
with cymbals loud, give praise;
let all that has breath give God praise;
praise to the Lord, all praise.

Second Reading

Revelation 1:4-8

John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega', says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 649 vv 1-2

Holy Gospel

John 20:19-31

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.' But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.' A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.' Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him, 'Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.' Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Gospeller: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Liturgical Lexicon

As we progress through the 50 days of Easter that will take us to Pentecost, our liturgy takes a different shape from Lent. The Paschal (Easter) Candle is lit each Sunday. White and gold frontals and vestments replace the penitential purple. We begin with the Easter greeting, the Gloria has returned, the sung litany has a brighter, joyful tone and we follow the ancient practice of omitting the Confession as we celebrate the Resurrection. We leave the Gospel narrative according to Luke and hear from the Gospel of John, and our other scripture readings are exclusively from the Book of Acts, which tells the story of the early church, and the Revelation to John, which describes John the Divine's visions of a reconciled creation when Jesus returns.

It is easy to think that Easter Day is an "ending" as it concludes the great three-day feast of the Paschal Triduum (Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter). It is in fact, the beginning of 50 days of hopeful joy and celebration.

2019 Bazaar Convenor

After several years at the helm, Karen Bryan is stepping down as the Bazaar Convenor for 2019. Many willing volunteers from across parish come together to make this annual event so popular with the wider community. Convening the bazaar can be done by an individual, couple or small team. If you are interested in taking on this task, please speak with Karen Bryan or any member of Parish Council.
