THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading

Acts 8:26-40

Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: "Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth." The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?" He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 22:24-30

My praise is of him in the great assembly; I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him. The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the Lord shall praise him: "May your heart live for ever!"

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall bow before him. For kingship belongs to the Lord; he rules over the nations.

To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; all who go down to the dust fall before him. My soul shall live for him; my descendants shall serve him; they shall be known as the Lord's for ever.

They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn the saving deeds that he has done.

Second Reading

1 John 4:7-21

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us. By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Saviour of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgement, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

Holy Gospel

John 15:1-8

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Westminster Presbyterian "Spring Fling": Thurs May 3 7pm

An event in support of Westminster Presbyterian's Mission Outreach Committee. For more information, see the poster outside the parish office. Tickets available through Louise in the parish office.

Spring Clean Up: Sat May 12 9am

Spring has finally sprung! Bring your rake, gloves etc. and help tidy away some of the debris of winter and renew the property around St. John's.

Community Dinner: Sun May 20

Please be in touch with Trish Warren if you are able to volunteer: trishwarren19@gmail.com . Trish will be stepping down as the coordinator following the June dinner, so if you are interested in helping to fill that role, please be in touch with Canon Catherine.

Bishop's Gala

The 36th annual Bishop's Gala Dinner and Silent Auction, in support of the Bishop's Discretionary Fund will be held on Thurs May 24 at The Ottawa Conference & Event Centre, 200 Coventry Road. The Bishop's Discretionary fund enables Bishop Chapman to provide practical support for areas and needs which fall outside of the regular diocesan budget. For more information, visit:

<https://ottawa.anglican.ca/bishops-gala/> Please let Canon Catherine know if you would like to attend, so that we can coordinate rides and a table.

Dinner Auction Sat May 26

Save the date for our annual fundraising dinner and auction! The next planning committee meeting is Sun May 6 following the 10am service.

Moving Forward with Reconciliation Sat May 26 9:30 – 3:30

The All My Relations Working Group is offering this workshop to help parishes and individuals in the Diocese deepen their understanding of the journey of truth and reconciliation with our First Nations. It is hoped parishes will send two members to the workshop. If you are interested in this important work that responds to the Church's Calls to Action from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, please speak with Canon Catherine.

Pastoral Coverage Apr 26-29

Canon Catherine will be away from the parish as an assessor for the Advisory Panel on Postulants for Ordination (ACPO) Apr 26-29. In the case of a pastoral emergency during this period, please contact Canon Jim Roberts at (613) 283-2125. ACPO is an important step on the journey for those discerning a call to ordained ministry. Please hold the candidates and the assessors in your prayers.
