THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading

1 Samuel 3:1-10

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread. At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Reader: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 139:1-11(seated)

Tune: Winchester Old

Lord, you have searched me out and known all that your hands have wrought;
my rising up and sitting down,
you know my every thought.

You trace my journeys and my rests,
and everything I do;
there is no word upon my lips
which is not known to you.

Behind, before, you press on me
and on me lay your hand;
such knowledge is too wonderful
for me to understand.

Then from your Spirit or your face,
where can I flee or go?
In heaven above I find you there,
and in the grave also.

If I should take the winds of dawn
and reach the farthest sea,
yet even there your hand holds fast,
your right hand still leads me.

If I say, 'Surely the darkness hides,
and light will turn to night,'
the darkness is not dark, to you
both day and night are bright.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 6:12-20

"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be dominated by anything. "Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food," and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, "The two shall be one flesh." But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Receiving Communion – An Important Notice from the Bishop

Everyone who has been baptized is welcome to receive communion. Communion is offered in both kinds, the bread and the wine.

It is safe to drink from the common cup. However, please do not dip the bread into the wine. The Bishop has stated that this practice is not allowed (Pastoral Letter of 2009 to all clergy and parishes.) The practice of intinction, dipping the bread in the wine, is a high risk activity; fingertips coming in direct contact with the wine may contaminate the shared wine with pathogens. If you wish to receive only the bread or only the wine, please be assured that in the Anglican Tradition, receiving in one kind is considered to be complete communion.

This is a departure from the practice for some, and so please feel free to approach Canon Catherine with any concerns you may have.
