THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Reading

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.' But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Reader: The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104:25-32 (please remain seated)

Tune: Land of Rest

Your works, O Lord, are manifold and wisely made and well;
you filled the earth with forms of life, more than our lips can tell.

And yonder lies the great, wide sea with life of every sort, and ships, and that Leviathan which you have made for sport.

These look to you and you provide, they gather what you give;
you open wide your hand with good to fill all things that live.

But when you hide your face, O Lord, they all are terrified;
you take away their breath, they die, and in the dust subside.

You send your Spirit forth and so create and give new birth;
may all your glory long endure; rejoice, Lord, in your earth.

Gradual Hymn 643 vv 1-2

Holy Gospel

John 14:8-17

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

All: *And also with you.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: *Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

Gospeller: The Gospel of Christ.

All: *Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Pentecost is the day when, according to the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 2:1-21), the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples, and each began to speak in different languages, a sign of the spread of the Gospel to different nations. It is a principal feast in the calendar. St. John's is alight with the Holy Spirit through its decorations and its colours.

In a ruling 500 years ago called the Doctrine of Discovery, Pope Alexander VI declared that the lands being discovered by European explorers at the time was "empty" land and its millions of Indigenous inhabitants were "non-human". Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission released 94 Calls to Action in 2015, with many of them referring to the Doctrine of Discovery and calling for its repudiation. This film is one of the responses of the Anglican Church's Primate's Commission on Discovery, Reconciliation and Justice.

The 10am service will be held on the front lawn of the church, followed by a bbq. Bring our lawn chair, your sun hat and sunglasses. There will be activities for children of all ages.
