THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading Job 38:1-7, 34-41
Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: 'Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that a flood of waters may cover you? Can you send forth lightnings, so that they may go and say to you, "Here we are"? Who has put wisdom in the inward parts, or given understanding to the mind? Who has the wisdom to number the clouds? Or who can tilt the waterskins of the heavens, when the dust runs into a mass and the clods cling together? Can you hunt the prey for the lion, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, when they crouch in their dens, or lie in wait in their covert? Who provides for the raven its prey, when its young ones cry to God, and wander about for lack of food?'

Reader: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104:1-9, 25, 37b

Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, how excellent is your greatness! You are clothed with majesty and splendour.

You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak and spread out the heavens like a curtain.

You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above; you make the clouds your chariot; you ride on the wings of the wind.

You make the winds your messengers and flames of fire your servants.

You have set the earth upon its foundations, so that it never shall move at any time.

You covered it with the deep as with a mantle; the waters stood higher than the mountains.

At your rebuke they fled; at the voice of your thunder they hastened away.

They went up into the hills and down to the valleys beneath, to the places you had appointed for them.

You set the limits that they should not pass; they shall not again cover the earth.

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. Hallelujah!

Second Reading

Hebrews 5:1-10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you'; as he says also in another place, 'You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.' In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Reader: The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Mark 10:35-45

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

All: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.' And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.' But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?' They replied, 'We are able.' Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.' When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, 'You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

Gospeller: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Commemoration of All Souls: Sun Nov 4 4pm

A service to remember loved ones who have died during the past year, and those we "love but see no longer." If you have a loved one you would like remembered at the service, please pass their name to Canon Catherine by Oct 31.

Sun Nov 11 Service time 9:30am

Our service time on Remembrance day will start 30 minutes early to allow people to attend the cenotaph at 11am.

Save the Date: Sat Nov 17 Parish Conversation and Visioning

Recalling Canon Catherine's charge to Vestry earlier this year, there will be a parish conversation and visioning day to help St. John's articulate its baptismal identity and chart a course for mission and ministry going forward. It is extremely important for there to be as much congregational participation as possible, so please save the date and plan to join in the conversation.

Post-Tornado Volunteers

Following the recent tornadoes in the area, The Rev'd Canon John Wilker-Blakley (incumbent of the Parish of March which includes the churches in Dunrobin, North March and Kanata North) has identified a need for retired insurance personnel or government workers who have experience with the complexities of insurance and government forms to assist people in their completion. If you or someone you know can help, please contact John directly at (613) 592-4747 or march.priest@rogers.com
