Greeting p. 185

Collect for Purity p. 185

Gloria Tune: Darwall

Glory to God on high, and peace to all on earth.
We worship you, we give you thanks, our heavenly King.
We give you praise,
almighty God and Father blessed in glory bright.

Our Saviour, Jesus Christ, the Father's only Son,
the sacrificial Lamb, who saves the world from sin,
have mercy Lord.
Beside the Father's hand enthroned, now hear our prayer.

You only are the Lord. You only are most high.
You only are the holy one, Lord Jesus Christ.
And now you reign
with Father and with Spirit one in glorious light.

Collect of the Day

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading

1 Samuel 1:4-20

On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the Lord had closed her womb. Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the Lord had closed her womb. So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the Lord, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?" After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the Lord. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the Lord. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the Lord, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: "O Lord of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head." As she continued praying before the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, "How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine." But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the Lord. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time." Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him." And she said, "Let your servant find favour in your sight." Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer. They rose early in the morning and worshipped before the Lord; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the Lord remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the Lord."

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145:8-14 (please remain seated)

Tune: Richmond

Beyond all bounds, God's graciousness and kindness still extend;
the Lord is ever slow to wrath, his mercy has no end.

His mercy rests on all his works, his love on everyone;
your faithful servants bless you, Lord, and all that you have done.

The glory of your kingdom and your power they proclaim;
that peoples all may know your power; the splendour of your reign.

Through every age your throne remains, your kingdom will endure;
the Lord shows love in all his deeds and all his words are sure.

Second Reading

Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God," and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet." For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 599 vv 1-3

Holy Gospel

Mark 10:13:1-8

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!" Then Jesus asked him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down." When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?" Then Jesus began to say to them, "Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs."

Gospeller: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sounds of Christmas: Sun Nov 18 6:30pm

This annual concert in support of the Salvation Army's Christmas Hamper project will be held at Bethel Pentecostal Church and will feature music from local parishes and readings from Charles' Dickens' A Christmas Carol. Come out and enjoy this family friendly event.

Smiths Falls Advent Walk: December 2 - 4pm

St. John's, Westminster Presbyterian, St. Francis de Sales and Trinity United will come together in an Advent Walk, where we will pray, sing, hear the timeless scriptures of Advent and journey together from one church to another. The walk begins at St. Francis, then we will make our way to Trinity, Westminster and end at St. John's where there will be some hot cider and cookies.

Advent Study: Sundays in Advent from noon-1:30pm

Journeying the Way of Love is based on Archbishop Michael Curry's (Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church) The Way of Love: Practices for a Jesus-centred Life. We will await the coming of Christ by moving through the first two chapters of the Gospel of Luke. We will start with a light soup lunch and then explore the following themes, one each week: The Annunciation – Saying "Yes" to the Journey; Mary & Elizabeth – Journeying with Family and Friends; The Birth of John the Baptist – Journeying with Community; The Birth of Jesus – Journeying with the World. All resources provided.

Heartbeat of the Church: Wed Dec 19 7-9pm

Our Primate, Archbishop Fred Hiltz is calling all of us - coast to coast - to come together in dialogue, prayer and reflection as we listen to the heartbeat of our church in Canada and offer our prayer. For more information, visit <https://www.anglican.ca/heartbeat/> or speak with Canon Catherine.

Advent Intergenerational Day: Sat Dec 15 10am – 1pm

Bring yourselves, your children, your grandchildren, your friends. We will make Chrismons (tree ornaments in the shape of or containing Christian symbols) Christingles and Christmas cards, share fellowship and worship and enjoy pizza, Christmas cookies and hot chocolate.
