WORKSHOP

Offering congregational resources for faithful, intentional and generous responses to God's mission

Register now for the Giving Our Thanks & Praise Workshop (ottawaanglican.eventbrite.com)

March 30, 2019, 9am-3pm, St James, Carleton Place (225 Edmund St.)

To support congregations and their leaders a new resource, Giving Our Thanks & Praise (GTP), was developed by the Anglican Church of Canada. On March 30, 2019, an orientation day is being offered. The Giving Our Thanks and Praise program (as well as I Intend) will be introduced to parishes in the deaneries of Arrnprior, Carleton and Lanark.

This day will introduce a program that -

- is grounded in Anglican theology and culture
- engages people in deepening their faith and understanding of discipleship (I Intend)
- offers current best practices for inspiring, inviting and thanking people in support of God's mission
- contains all of the tools required to implement a strong giving program
- can be easily adapted and customized for any congregation

The day will be led by Susan Graham Walker, Manager of Congregational Giving for the Anglican Church of Canada. Susan brings experience and passion to this ministry. She will provide an interactive workshop that will highlight new ideas to build on the good work being accomplished by our congregations.

Register online now at ottawaanglican.eventbrite.com, or by cheque made out to Anglican Diocese of Ottawa, and send it to Heidi Danson, 71 Bronson Avenue, Ottawa, ON, K1R 6G6. The early bird fee is $15 by March 7, 2019, and the regular fee is $20 by March 19, 2019. For congregations that register more than three people, the fee is $15 per person. Each parish will receive a free kit package. Refreshments and lunch are included. If you have questions about this workshop, please call Jane Scanlon, Diocesan Stewardship Development Officer, at 613-232-7124, extension 225.
